

APPLICATION FOR 2020 NEW DOCTA FELLOWSHIP

August 27th – September 6th / Argentina

NEW DOCTA
INTERNATIONAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

Application Due Date:

April 1, 2020

Fellowship Recipient Announcement:

May 1, 2020

About New Docta Festival

New Docta brings world-class musicians to Argentina to perform, to inspire children of all backgrounds, and to nurture the next generation of Latin American talent. We aim to use classical music and its power of expression to nourish the souls and open the minds of people of all ages and backgrounds. Our music will break down existing barriers and contribute to a universal humanity and better tomorrow.

Fellowship

New Docta announces the 2020 New Docta Fellowship and calls on music students who are passionate about music education, community engagement and social change to apply for this very special opportunity. Fellowship recipient will work closely, and perform with New Docta Artsits, during the 8th New Docta Festival to take place in Argentina between August 27 and September 6., 2020. Applications will be judged based on originality, innovation and social change message, interactive ideas, creativity and curiosity.

Eligibility

Vocal or Instrumental Students (except pianists) from any country, currently enrolled in a Bachelor, Certificate or Master program in a US University or Conservatory between the ages of 22 and 32. Spanish speakers are encouraged but not required.

FOR RULES AND APPLICATION
PLEASE SCAN
THE QR CODE
BELOW:

Requirements:

1. Full Name
2. Instrument or Voice type
3. Date of birth
4. Citizenship and Residence
5. Institution and Degree
6. Community engagement proposal (up to 500 words)
7. Short bio (up to 300 words)
8. Application fee of USD 40
9. Email
10. Telephone Number

Terms & Conditions:

1. Applicants must be between 22 and 32 at the time of application.
2. Applications open on February 1, 2020, and close April 1, 2020.
3. Applicants can be from any country, currently studying in the United States.
4. Community engagement proposal should be detailed, and designed for children and youth aged 6 to 14. It should have specific ideas including a theme, how to interact with audience, purpose and intended outcome. It should be based on a 45-60 minute interactive concert.
5. Judging will be on grounds of originality, innovation and creativity to achieve best impact on children and youth.
6. Finalists will be contacted by April 15, 2020 by phone.
7. 2020 New Docta Fellowship Recipient will be announced on May 1, 2020.
8. The outcome of New Docta's decision is final.

The 2020 New Docta Fellowship Recipient will receive:

1. Round trip airfare to/from Argentina
2. All ground transportation while in Argentina
3. All meals during the duration of the festival
4. One hotel room during the duration of the festival
5. Announcements in publications in social media, written press, radio, and will be included in flyers, programs and other physical and digital material for 2020 New Docta Festival
6. A prize award of USD 1,000